

THURSDAY, MARCH 16, 2017

FAIR HOUSING LAW(S)

AND ALASKANS WITH DISABILITIES

6:00 pm – 7:45 pm / Juneau Public Library - Valley Branch / 3025 Dimond Park Loop

The Fair Housing Act prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability in all types of housing transactions. This session will include an overview of federal and state laws on fair housing and the reasonable accommodation process for residents with a disability as well as facility owners and operators. Participants will have an opportunity to:

- Learn about the Typical Questions & Answers on Fair Housing
- Learn about the Fair Housing Act's Design & Construction Requirements
- Understand the Reasonable Accommodation Process and Topics such as Service and Assistive Animals for a Resident with a Disability
- Understand concepts of undue burden, fundamental alteration, and direct threat issues
- Have an opportunity to ask questions and find where one can find trusted technical assistance when needed

Presenter: David Barton, NWADAIC Training & Technical Assistance Specialist